CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Proceedings of Yesterday's Session of the Society at Minneapolis - As Unruly on the Floor as Most People.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 10.-This "decentrial day" of the Christian endeavor so cleties was epened at 6:30 by haif an hour prayer meeting, led by William Shaw treasurer of the united societies, Boston treasurer of the united societies, Boston. The regular session was aunounced for a o'clock, but it was nearly half an hour later before it was called to order.

The delayed New York delegation marched into the half at 9:15, headed by a band of collegians singing, "Hurrah, hurrah, We're Coming, Teo." They were promptly called to order, and the congregation joined in singing, "This is My Song."

A "free parliament" was then conducted by Rev. Dr. J. A. Rondtbaler of Indianap-olis, the subject for consideration being "What the Society has Done." "What the Society has Done.

Dr. Rondthaler opened the parliament with a fifteen minutes' talk, explaining that the topic was not to consider "the relations" of the society to the church, for the society is the church. His speech was but the introduction to one of the most interesting general exercises. A syllabus had been prepared considering the society in Sunday services, in midway week prayer meeting, in Sunday-school, in systematic benevo-lence, and as the circulating medium for religions. Little attention was paid to the syllabus, for all over the hall delegates were on their feet within one minute with suggestions in relation to the work of the society. The chairman pointed out one after another, and they came so fast and responses of the audience were so quick at each remark seemed the signal for a that each remark seemed the signal for a short burst of applituse. Sociability, conversion of soul, esposition to saleons and Surday amusements, and many other points were brought out in quick succession.

Landwermeyer Resting Well,

special to the Gazette.

TERRELL, KAUFMAN COENTY, TEX., July 10 —Gus Lindwermeyer, who was so unex-perbuly stabled by someone Wednesday, is resting very well. The deed was done within about a mile of Elmo, though Land-wermeyor lives only three miles from Ter-roll. The wounded man seemed to recog-tize the man who stabled him as a former himste of the asylum by the name of Gor-mon, or some such name, that he had a list and shirt on marked "W. 1" or "Ward L" or some other number. Whether these numbers on hat and shirt identify the man as a lunatic, remains to be proved, as there
